Medical Supplies.

Drs. F. V. Brookes, Ernest King, and F. B. Poole have been appointed a special committee by Chairman D. Percy Hickling, of the medical committee, to obtain medical supplies for the use of the encampment. Dr. Brookes was a caller at encampment headquarters this morning, where he had a long talk with Secretary Bulkley. He said that it was the purpose of his committee to pursue the methods adopted by the same committee during the encampment here ten years ago, and within a short time letters will be directed to all of the large manufacturing druggists in the country soliciting the donation of supplies. Large returns were secured in this manner on the former occasion and there is no reason to doubt that equal success will be met with at this time. Dr. Hickling is desirous of securing an unusually large and effective committee for as large as the committee was in 1922 the entire force was kept busy all night following the parade carrying for the old veterans who needed their attention. Since then the ten years that have been added to the ages of the veterans is likely to add to the number who will require medical attention and it is the desire of Dr. Hickling to be prepared for every emergency.

There is no committee meeting of the encampment committees scheduled for tonight, but tomorrow night both the reunion committee and the Veterans Army and of the Army of the Tennessee have been called for encampment headquarters, 1405 New York Avenue northwest, at 8 o'clock.

LETTERED AWNING STRIPS.

Major Sylvester Reports That They Should Be Allowed to Remain.

Major Richard Sylvester, Superintendent of Police, has submitted to the District Commissioners a report as to the locations of awnings which have lettered strips on the outer edge which remain down when the remainder of the canvas is rolled up. Those lettered strips, it appears, have been constructed by the Building Department to park the nature of signs and held to be illegal in future awning construction.

Major Sylvester states that the strips have existed for some time. The lettering is the same as is permitted on the awnings of awnings, and in his opinion, should be allowed to remain.

The cases are not numerous, he says, and the signs are not observable from the sidewalk, going or coming. If the Commissioners desire, however, the police will do the best they can to prevent lettering of the kind in the future.

Train Wrecked by a Cyclone.

BOMBAY, July 2.—A cyclone blew a train from the track and turned it on its side at New Rampurhat today. Thirty-seven persons were killed and fifteen injured.

FINE GOLD MEDAL FOR EDWIN C. MADDEN

Third Assistant Postmaster General Remembered by the Locomotive Firemen.

Mr. Edwin C. Madden, Third Assistant Postmaster General, received this morning from the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, of which organization Mr. Madden is an honorary member, a fine, large gold medal.

Mr. Madden is proud of the honors thus bestowed on him by his former colleagues, and values it very highly. There are only three honorary members in the brotherhood, and General Madden is one of them.

PROMOTIONS PLEASE DISTRICT OFFICIALS

Successful Ones Receiving Congratulations.

Formal Good-by Paid to City Clerk McKenzie by His Subordinates.

General satisfaction was expressed at the District Building this morning over the list of appointments made yesterday by the Commissioners. The older employees went to their tasks with a livelier interest, feeling that as long as the present Board of Commissioners are at the helm there is something to hope for in the way of promotion as a recognition of work well done.

There was much congratulation of the successful ones, Messrs. McKenzie and Nye coming in for the better share. Both are deservedly popular among their fellow-laborers, and everybody seems glad at their good fortune. The Board of Assistant Assessors called upon the Commissioners in a body to pay their respects, and the older ones to express their gratification at the accession of the new members to their number.

Pleasant Scene Enacted.

Early this morning a pleasant scene was enacted in the Auditor's Office, when Mr. Petty and his subordinates gathered to bid an official good-by to Mr. McKenzie. Mr. Petty took occasion, in the presence of the other employees of the office, to call attention to the good feeling that had existed between himself and Mr. McKenzie during the thirty years of their service together. He spoke in high terms of the departing Chief Clerk, alike on official and personal grounds. He voiced the sentiment of the office in saying that but for the same time none could conceal their pride and satisfaction at the good fortune which had come to their comrade.

Mr. Petty, in behalf of the office, wished Mr. McKenzie the highest success in his new field of labor. Mr. McKenzie replied briefly to the felicitations of the office, and stated that he feared it would be a good while before he should get out of the habit of turning down the corridor toward the room in which is located his old desk. He said he did not expect to be any happier or to have better friends in the new position than he had in the old.

Rearrangement of Forces.

After Mr. McKenzie took his leave, Mr. Alonzo Tweedle assumed the duties of the office of chief clerk, and D. J. Donovan took his place as head bookkeeper of the office.

Over in the office of the Superintendent of Street Cleaning there was a rearrangement of forces. George W. Mercer became in fact Assistant Superintendent, John Twobey was advanced to the office of chief clerk, and several minor changes took place among the clerks and inspectors as became necessary by Mr. Nye's promotion.

Louis C. Wilson took up the position of secretary to Commissioner Rosa, and A. Lee, of the Assessor's office, was installed as clerk in the office of secretary to the Board of Commissioners.

The principal appointments under the new appropriations bill being now out of the way, it is expected that the Commissioners will turn their attention to the appointment of a member of the Board of Police and Fire Surgeons to succeed Dr. Clifton Mayfield, resigned.

MARYLAND VETERANS RECEIVE A PROMISE

Colonel McKellip Slated for a Consular Position Soon.

A delegation of Maryland officials of the Grand Army of the Republic called on President Roosevelt at the temporary White House this morning and secured his promise of a consular position for Colonel McKellip, who was introduced to the Executive some weeks ago by Senator McComas.

The President told the veterans that he could not immediately name Colonel McKellip, but that he would give him the first vacancy of a suitable nature which might occur in the service. The delegates expressed satisfaction at this declaration.

Representative Blakeney introduced the visitors. Those who came to see the President in Colonel McKellip's behalf were Capt. John N. Worth, department commander of Maryland; Frank Nolan, past department commander; Capt. J. G. Taylor, Col. Benjamin F. Taylor, Mr. George W. Johnson, Mr. Leonard Hoffman and Major J. F. Carter.

An Accused Murderer Arrested.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 2.—William Rossman, who is accused of killing his son-in-law, Charles Hupp, at 892 South Division Street last night, was captured this morning at the home of a friend named John Rapp, on Lyman Street, where he spent the night. A charge of murder in the first degree has been preferred against Rossman.

MARRIED.

McKAY-GEYER—On June 26, 1932, at Crisfield, Md., by the Rev. William G. Gwyn, NATHANIEL McKAY and MAHEL G. GEYER.

DIED.

REARDON—On June 30, 1932, at 2:30 p. m., JOHN F., beloved husband of Jennie K. C. Reardon, aged 68 years, died at his residence, 1221 H Street northwest, Thursday, July 3, 1932, at 12 o'clock. He was 68 years, 11 months and 12 days old. He was a native of Ireland. He was a member of the St. Stephen's Church, where mass will be said for the repose of his soul.

EXPLANATIONS MUST COME FROM DISBROW

District Attorney Says He Has a Strong Case

PRISONER AT GOOD GROUND

Loses Some of His Nonchalance of Manner and Looks Somewhat Thinner. Must Tell Whereabouts on the Fatal Night—Before Court Today.

GOOD GROUND, L. I., July 2.—Louis A. Disbrow, looking perhaps thinner than yesterday and with less nonchalance of manner than has hitherto characterized him since his surrender two days ago, arrived in Good Ground a little before 9 o'clock this morning, accompanied by his lawyers, Sheriff Wells and detectives, from Riverhead to appear at the hearing in the Union Hall of Good Ground.

He pleaded not guilty yesterday when arranged before Justice of the Peace Foster at Southampton and charged with the murder of Clarence Foster and Sarah Lawrence at Good Ground on June 9.

Hearing Today.

It is expected that he will tell today at the hearing, which was adjourned to this place, where most of the witnesses live, his story of his association with Foster and the girl up to a few hours at least of the time they disappeared.

District Attorney Smith said this morning:

Has Strong Case.

"We have a very strong case, and one that I think strong enough to hold Disbrow for the grand jury. He will have to do a lot of explaining to give us a satisfactory story of where he was on the night of June 9. While he may be able to make a satisfactory explanation, I must say that our case seems to me to be able to meet all possible exigencies."

Appears in Court.

When court opened at 9 o'clock, Rowland Miles, counsel for Disbrow, moved that the complaint be dismissed and the defendant discharged on the grounds that the deposition failed to show facts sufficient to cause the belief that a crime had been committed or that the defendant is guilty thereof and is entirely insufficient to confer jurisdiction on the court.

The district attorney opposed the motion.

The district attorney said: "I think it is not necessary that the deposition should present to your honor conclusive proof of the commission of the offense, but only that it should show facts tending to establish the commission of the crime. This ruling has been rendered by the court of appeals."

Deposition of Miss Pearsall.

"In the first place, we have the deposition of Miss Anna Pearsall, who relates the occurrences at her house on June 9, the fact that the parties involved were planning to go out on the lake and that Disbrow, who went out with Sarah Lawrence and Foster, had been seen by her on the night of June 9 on the shore of Tiana Bay. There we have the motives of jealousy and anger. We also show, from the deposition of Nelson Squires, the improbability of Foster, an expert swimmer and swimmer, embarking in a leaky boat; also that two boats, not one, were out on the night in question. In the deposition relating to the finding of the two bodies we find circumstances which lead to evidence of murder. And, therefore, I beg your honor that you will deny the motion for the discharge."

A Crime Should Be Known.

Miles, counsel for Disbrow, replied: "The depositions should show, to be good, that a crime has been committed, and in these depositions there is not an iota of evidence of murder."

Mr. Miles, after assuring the court that there was no reliable evidence which would prove that the death of Foster and Sarah Lawrence had been due to violence, again moved for dismissal. The motion was denied by Justice Foster and Mr. Miles accepted.

The first witness, John Caffery, of the life-saving station, who found the body of Foster, was then called. Caffery described at length his finding of Foster's body, which he said he discovered floating face downward in Tiana Bay.

He described the appearance of the body, saying that he noticed a good deal of blood on the face, but did not see any external wound. The necessity of writing all the testimony in long-hand made the examination drag prodigiously, the direct questions averaging about three a minute.

Depth of the Water.

On cross-examination, Mr. Miles set out to ascertain from the witness the depth of the water in the bay, particularly about June 9. The depth of water, said Caffery, was from six to seven feet. The bottom of the bay, he declared, was covered with mud. There were, however, considerable quantities of oysters planted in beds in the bay. It was apparently the intention of Disbrow's counsel to find a satisfactory cause for the alleged wounds on Foster's head.

STAFF COLLEGE OPENING.

September 1 Selected as the Date for the Leavenworth Institution.

The Secretary of War today promulgated a general order relating to the opening, on September 1, 1932, of the General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and the appointment of the War College Board. The War College will be established in this city.

The order follows:

"1. The General Service and Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will be opened September 1, 1932. The course of instruction will be arranged under the supervision of the War College Board and announced in general orders.

"Brig. Gen. J. Franklin Bell is detailed as commander of the college and post at Fort Leavenworth. He will be relieved from duty in the Division of the Philippines on July 4, 1932, and will assume his duties under the foregoing detail at Fort Leavenworth at his convenience.

"2. The following officers were detailed as members of the War College Board: Major Gen. Samuel B. M. Young, Brig. Gen. William H. Carter, Brig. Gen. T. H. Bliss, Major Henry A. Greene, United States Infantry, assistant adjutant general, and Major William D. Beach, Tenth United States Cavalry.

"The board composed of the above named officers and Brig. Gen. George L. Gillespie, chief of engineers; Brig. Gen. J. Franklin Bell, commander of the general service and staff college; Col. Wallace F. Randolph, chief of artillery, and Col. Albert L. Mills, superintendent of the Military Academy, ex-officio members, will convene in this city on the 21st day of July, 1932.

"The board will be governed by the provisions of general orders No. 155, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, November 27, 1901, and such other instructions as may from time to time be communicated to it."

DECISION IN BARTLETT CASE IS SUSTAINED

Comptroller of the Treasury Upholds the Disallowance Claim.

Mr. Robert J. Tracewell, Comptroller of the Treasury, in a lengthy opinion today sustained the action of the Auditor for the Treasury Department in disallowing the claim of Mr. George A. Bartlett, disbursing agent, this city, for commissions at the rate of 3% of 1 per cent of the amount of $2,450,710.10, disbursed by him on account of the appropriation for the postoffice, Washington, D. C., from October 15, 1891, to April 4, 1900, namely, $9,190.20.

Concluding his opinion, Mr. Tracewell said in part: "I am inclined to the opinion that the act of August 7, 1882, was intended as a revision on the prior laws on this subject and that the provision for compensation for the disbursement of moneys from appropriations for public buildings or grounds 'not located within the city of Washington' is exclusive, and therefore implicitly prohibits the payment of compensation for the disbursement of moneys for an appropriation for a public building located therein."

SHEDS DAMAGED BY FIRE.

Blaze on H Street Northwest This Morning Does $700 Damage.

Sheds in the rear of houses 2323 and 2325 H Street northwest, which buildings are occupied by Mr. Joseph Clements and Mrs. C. Schlaz respectively, were damaged by fire shortly before 9:30 o'clock this morning. The loss is estimated at $700.

An alarm was sounded from box 321 and the prompt response of the fire department prevented more serious damage from being sustained. The cause of the fire is unknown.

DISCORDS REPORTED IN FRENCH CABINET

The "Figaro" Hears of Diplomatic Changes.

M. Jules Cambon May Be Recalled From Washington to Serve in Berlin.

PARIS, July 2.—The "Figaro" says it understands that dissensions have already arisen in M. Combes' cabinet. Several ministers have expressed surprise at the publicly expressed views of M. Pelletan, minister of marine, which differ from the opinion of M. Rouvier, the minister of finance.

The appointment of Mr. Bean, the French minister at Peking, as governor of Indo-China will hasten the rearrangement of the diplomatic representatives of France, for which M. Delcasse, the foreign minister, is making preparations. Several ambassadors will be changed. M. Combes, the French ambassador to Turkey, who it will be recalled, left Constantinople during the trouble about the concessions to French citizens, wishes to retire.

M. Jules Cambon, the French ambassador at Washington, may be transferred to Berlin.
